

THE BULLETS emerged in the Greek rock'n'roll scene back in 1988! From then on, their presence has been marked by a continuous passion and worship to what they're devoted. All we have here are three storming rockabilly/surf cuts that will for sure drift everything around! Influenced by rockabilly, surf, teddy boy, 50's trash and doo wop, they pay tribute to the heroes of their adolescence such as Gene Vincent, Link Wray, The Ventures and Johnny Carroll, creating a unique sound with a very personal touch! So far, they have also participated in countless rock'n'roll gatherings and festivals around Greece, Germany and Italy!

With this 7" EP THE BULLETS request the attention of pure rock'n'roll fans internationally! All three tracks make a fine surf-a-billy mixture which will surely impress everybody! The opening number "Fuzzbitten" as well as "Son Of The Beach" are both speedy furious and high energy surf instrumentals. On the contrary, "Black Out" is a wonderful sample of romantic surf tune with vocals a la Four Seasons and Dion And The Belmonts!

This piece of wax is an essential part of any beach party around, a record that makes hot summer days more shiny and long cold winter ones short-lasting until next summer comes!
