

The Breathless were formed in Thessaloniki, Greece in 2003 with the simple motive that has seen many a good band off to a fine start: a true love for Rock'n'Roll music and a willingness to play it as much as possible. With both feet planted firmly in each camp, that is the original '50s Rockabilly music (Elvis, Gene Vincent, Eddie Cochran, Carl Perkins, Johnny Burnette Trio, Buddy Holly and Chuck Berry) as well as the late '70s & '80s Neo-Rockabilly Sound (Stray Cats, The Polecats, The Jets and Crazy Cavan), they have appeared on two "On Stage Records" compilation albums before getting the break with their debut album. Much more than "just another rockabilly album", you will find in here ballads, strings, piano.. all sorts! Rock & Roll Is Here To Stay and as long as there is Rockabilly music around this world is just fine!!!
