

After their successful debut album "Teasing Woman", already sold-out, Free Soul invite us for a walk in the warm regions of the South in Nashville, Tennessee with 14 songs full of country, rockabilly, boogie, rhythm and blues.

Brand new material housed in a luxurious digipak with 24-page insert. The album contains an awesome cover of "Fever", a duet with Christina Zirides, the unexpected "Runaway" by Del Shannon with vocals from "Shockin' Steve" of the Bullets and a cover of "In The Heart Of The City" by Dr . Feelgood. Last but not least, pioneer tenor sax John Armeninis is involved on this album!
